

Attire/Equipment List

How to dress? : The dress code that must be followed as part of the Diner En Blanc tradition:

- Wear WHITE -- this means no ivory, no cream or any other color will be permitted! (white shoes highly recommended)
- Dress ELEGANTLY -- even VERY elegantly! Optional suggestions: white hat (highly recommended), white jacket, white mask, white gloves, white wig. · Prohibited: T-shirts, colorful sports shoes, baseball caps, shorts.

What to bring on D-day:

- A folding square table (between 24" and 30") + 2 white folding chairs; If you wish to rent or buy a table and /or chairs, please refer to the POS (point of service) section at the end of Information Letter #1.
- The confirmation of your reservation (electronic receipt). This is Mandatory.
- A white bag or a white picnic basket (or covered with a white fabric) containing quality food as well as the following items :
 - o 1 white tablecloth and 2 white cloth napkin
 - o Electric votive candles
 - o 1 matchbox or 1 lighter (to light up the sparklers)
 - o 2 white plates + 2 white plates for dessert (non disposable)
 - o 2 sets of cutlery (plastic forbidden)
 - o 2 glasses (plastic forbidden)
 - o 1 bottle opener
 - o 1 bottle of water, soft drinks (alcoholic drinks are prohibited, except when distributed by our caterer - see section below)
 - o 1 complete meal: 1 first course, 1 cold main course, 1 cheese and/or 1 dessert, 1 bread
 - o Condiments optional
 - o 1 trash bag
 - o Optional: 1 vase and a bouquet (only color authorized)
- Your cheerfulness

Alcohol Policy: Please be advised, alcohol can be consumed on site only when purchased through our caterer. You are not allowed to bring your own alcohol. Please note that there is a maximum purchase of two wine bottles per table.

All purchases will be available on site and ready for pick up.